

CITY FATHERS PERFORM FOR SCHOOL GIRLS

"Really Edifying," Say Wadleigh High Seniors Who Attend Session.

Wadleigh High School girls occupied all the seats in the gallery of the Aldermanic chamber to-day and watched with great curiosity the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen. Recently one of the girls of the senior class wrote to President McGowan asking if it would be "quite proper" for the girls to become spectators. President McGowan assured them that they might present themselves with due propriety and he gallantly invited every Wadleigh High School member of the senior class. In the absence of "Littl' Tim" Sullivan, who is taking a vacation at Hot Springs, Alderman Frank L. Dowling, the "Eighty Avenue Statesman" assumed the reins of leadership at today's meeting. When this was explained to one of the young ladies she said, "Why, he doesn't look like a driver."

Alderman "Jack" Riordan, who used to be a cabby before he became an Alderman, went out and bought a boutonniere when he saw the young women.

"What are they?" he asked, "suffragettes?"

When the meeting adjourned and the visitors were asked their opinions of the Aldermen these were the judgments recorded: "I think Alderman Dowling is a real round-faced man—is real nice."

"President McGowan is certainly a handsome man."

"Alderman Riordan is going to be a great parliamentary sensation," he heard. "I think he is going to be a great parliamentary sensation."

"It's too bad Alderman Frank Kenay is so baldheaded. He ought to wear a skull cap."

"From our place in the gallery we could see all the baldheads, and they weren't in the front row, either."

"Well, it was really edifying. I never knew we had such a dignified, fine looking body of City Fathers or Fathers."

CORBIN ESTATE SHRINKS NEARLY FOUR MILLIONS

Court Fighting and Payment of Debts Leave Only $1,491,000 for Heirs.

When Austin Corbin, who was President of the Long Island Railroad, died in 1898, the appraised valuation of his estate was practically $5,000,000. As shown by an accounting and decree settling an account, which has been filed in the Suffolk County Surrogate's office at Riverhead, L. I., the actual assets at this time have shrunk to $1,491,000. It is shown by the decree that Mr. Corbin left so much unproductive property and such a large indebtedness that it has taken every cent of the income to conserve the estate and pay the indebtedness without paying to the beneficiaries their bequests.

The actual cash on hand at the time of the accounting was $80,000, and from this is to be paid $2,000 for expenses of the account.

Out of the $5,000,000 appraised assets Mr. Corbin left the trustees have had to pay very heavy legal expenses through twelve years of fighting in the courts and a large indebtedness left by the testator.

The death of Mrs. Corbin, which occurred about a year ago, gave the executors an opportunity to divide the estate. As shown by the decree, this is being done. The assets of the estate as now fixed were ordered to be divided into four parts by the decree and handed over to the parties interested.

FRENCH LINE OFFICER HELD AS A SMUGGLER

Maurice Barnier, Second Captain of La Savoie, Under $2,500 Bail for Examination.

On a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Shields, charging the smuggling of diamonds and lace worth $2,500, Maurice Barnier, second captain of the French liner La Savoie, was today arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Pinckney. The accused was held in $2,500 bail for examination on April 15.

According to the complaint signed by Edward J. Norwood, Deputy Acting Surveyor of Customs, the laces, worth $2,000, and three diamond rings worth $500, but not mentioned in the liner's manifest, were found in Barnier's cabin when the vessel arrived here from Havre on Sunday.

The articles were seized and taken to the Public Store and an investigation disclosed that although supposed to be a part of the mail of the French Consulate of this city, they were intended for a young man formerly employed in the French Consulate. This man has not yet been arrested and the authorities fear because of the premature publicity given the case he has fled.

TERRY SAVES $1,500 A YEAR ON BOND

Friends Help Asst. U. S. Treasurer Dodge Surety Company Charges.

The names of the men on the bond of George S. Terry, the new Assistant United States Treasurer in charge of the New York Sub-Treasury, became known today in Wall street. Instead of securing a bond from a surety company, Mr. Terry got the personal bond of five prominent men for $50,000, the amount required.

Mr. Terry's bondsmen are George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican National Committee; William Nelson Cromwell, former Governor Franklin Murphy, of New Jersey; Isaac N. Seligman, of the banking firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co.; and Charles F. Brooks, banker and vice-president of the Board of Directors of the New Haven Railroad.

By not having a surety company bond Mr. Terry will save about $1,500 per year, which would be the annual premium on a bond of $50,000.
